

10 Minutes Answer/Peer Review Essential Question #1

1. Answer Essential Question #1: Where would you live in Japan during the time period we are studying? Why?
2. Once you are finished have a next door neighbor (someone sitting directly next to you) review your essential question and review theirs. Make sure that the essential question you read includes a proper introduction, 2-3 details, and a conclusion. If it does not then help the person who wrote it to fix it.
3. If you finish you may:
  1. Peer Review another person's essential question.
  2. Start on Study Guide Chapter 8, Section 2
  3. Work on your cover page (it will be 6 images/symbols and 6 keywords-corresponding information total)
  4. Read quietly

New Standards

7.5.2 Discuss the reign of Prince Shotoku of Japan and the characteristics of Japanese society and family life during his reign.

New Standards

7.5.2 Discuss the reign of Prince Shotoku of Japan and the characteristics of Japanese society and family life during his reign.

Reign: a period of time a person serves a monarch (king or queen) or pope.

New Standards

7.5.4 Trace the development of distinctive forms of Japanese Buddhism.

New Standards

7.5.4 Trace the development of distinctive forms of Japanese Buddhism.

Distinctive: having a special quality, style, attractiveness, etc.

New Standards

7.5.5 Study the ninth and tenth centuries' golden age of literature, art, and drama and its lasting effects on culture today, including Murasaki Shikibu's Tale of Genji.

Work Time

15 Minutes

- Work independently to finish Study Guide Chapter 8, Section 2.
- You may write on the study guide.
- If you finish early you may work on your cover page or read quietly.