

To complete each Geography Challenge card, answer the questions in complete sentences. Label the map on the opposite page as directed.

Question 1 The Mayan civilization existed in the modern countries of Mexico, Guatemala, Belize, Honduras, and El Salvador. The Aztec civilization existed in the modern country of Mexico.

Question 2 The Inca civilization existed in the modern countries of Peru, Ecuador, Bolivia, Chile, and Argentina.

Question 3 The Guatemalan Highlands, Yucatan Peninsula, and Peten Rainforest are found in southern Mexico and Guatemala.

Question 4 The Sierra Madre Occidental, Sierra Madre Oriental, and Valley of Mexico are found in central Mexico.

Question 5 The Andes Mountains, Lake Titicaca, and the Atacama Desert are found along the west coast of South America.

Question 6 The Mayan civilization existed primarily in the tropical wet climate zone.

Question 7 The principal climate zones for the Aztecs were the semiarid, highland, and tropic wet climate zones.

Question 8 The principal climate zones for the Incas were the highland, tropical wet, tropical wet and dry, semiarid, subtropical dry, and desert climate zones.