

Video-Film: Instructional Video Review

In addition to in-class assignments and group video projects, students will review 2 instructional videos per quarter (worth up to 10 pts. each) on topics related to the course curriculum. Suggested topics include: Lighting, Audio, Camerawork, Digital Editing, Special FX, Acting, Screenwriting, Directing, etc. For full credit, responses should be thorough, accurate, and original.

Student Name:

Period:

Date:

Website URL:

Title / Subject Matter:

Video Length:

Rate the value of the video for other students: 1 2 3 4 5

1 = Waste of Time 2 = Slightly Valuable 3 = Somewhat Valuable 4 = Valuable 5 = Extremely Valuable

PLEASE ATTACH A SEPARATE SHEET FOR THE FOLLOWING RESPONSES**

- 1. Main Points of Video (bullet points ok)
- 2. Specifics / Details / Notes (1/2 page minimum)
- 3. How can this information be used to improve your future video projects? (one paragraph)

Video-Film: Instructional Video Review

In addition to in-class assignments and group video projects, students will review 2 instructional videos per quarter (worth up to 10 pts. each) on topics related to the course curriculum. Suggested topics include: Lighting, Audio, Camerawork, Digital Editing, Special FX, Acting, Screenwriting, Directing, etc. For full credit, responses should be thorough, accurate, and original.

Student Name:

Period:

Date:

Website URL:

Title / Subject Matter:

Video Length:

Rate the value of the video for other students: 1 2 3 4 5

1 = Waste of Time 2 = Slightly Valuable 3 = Somewhat Valuable 4 = Valuable 5 = Extremely Valuable

PLEASE ATTACH A SEPARATE SHEET FOR THE FOLLOWING RESPONSES**

- 1. Main Points of Video (bullet points ok)
- 2. Specifics / Details / Notes (1/2 page minimum)
- 3. How can this information be used to improve your future video projects? (one paragraph)